

BINDURA UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE EDUCATION WORKSHOP REPORT

30 May 2023

1. Introduction

Following a request for an educational tour of the SECZim offices, the Commission organised a workshop for Bindura University of Science Education on 30 May 2023.

2. Presenters

Tariro Musikavanhu – Surveillance and Risk Manager
Darlington Chiunye – Supervision and Licensing Officer
Precious Hassen – Investor Education Officer

3. Objectives of the workshop

- a) Engagement and interaction with students and lecturers
- b) Raise awareness and encourage participation in the capital markets through available platforms i.e. C-trade, ZSE Direct and VFEX Direct.
- c) Encourage a culture of saving and investing by young adults

4. Attendance

37 students and 5 lecturers attended the workshop.

Bindura University students and lecturers pose for a group photo after the workshop.

Students and lecturers listening attentively as Ms. Tariro Musikavanhu – Surveillance and Risk Manager gives an overview of the capital market in Zimbabwe.

5. Activities conducted during the session

a) Presentations

Presentations are attached below.

Investor Education
Presentation to BUSE, Understanding ML.pp

Bindura

BUSE Tour -
Presentation.pptx

b) Questions & Answers (Q&A) Session

During this session, money laundering issues were of interest to the learners as well as careers in capital markets.

6. Outputs/ tangible products

- a) 42 students and lecturers were trained
- b) 1 relationship added to SECZim stakeholders

7. Learning Outcomes

- i. Enhanced knowledge and understanding of the capital market by university students

8. Recommendations

- i. SECZim should continue to publicise the free online and face to face workshop with universities, schools and organisations.
- ii. SECZim to share more information around money laundering
- iii. SECZim presentations to include presentation on career in capital markets